

SAM—TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

INTRODUCTION (Revised 01/2016)

4100

The Department of General Services, Office of Fleet Administration Management (OFAM) is responsible for establishing, implementing, and maintaining policies and procedures governing state-owned mobile equipment. Mobile equipment is defined as equipment that is self-powered, easily moved and used for passenger, and equipment transportation and construction or maintenance work.